

The AI-Enhanced Cake That Made Me New Friends

Card 1: Hook - Programmer Meets Cake Picnic

- I am a programmer, not a baker.
- Saw a flyer for a cake picnic: 50 cakes, all homemade.
- Thought: Sure, why not?
- Problem: I do not bake - I code.

Card 2: The Idea - Remix the Pumpkin Roll

- Love Thanksgiving pumpkin roll, but it is spring.
- Farmers' market full of strawberries.
- Idea: Matcha strawberry log.
- Matcha sponge, strawberries, cream.

Card 3: Enter AI - The Not-So-Scary Sous-Chef

- People say: AI is taking jobs, killing creativity.
- I used AI as a sous-chef.
- Flavor pairings, color tricks, cream tweaks.
- AI did not bake the cake - I did.

Card 4: The Bake - From Idea to Cake Picnic

- Trial runs, recipe tweaks.
- Showed up at the picnic with the log.
- 50 cakes - mine gone in under 5 minutes.

Card 5: The Best Part - Making Friends

- People asked: What is this? How did you make it?
- Swapped tips, stories.
- Made new baking friends.
- From programmer to baker - thanks to AI.

Card 6: The Big Idea - AI as a Tool, Not the Boss

- AI did not replace me.
- It helped me create.
- Creativity is not dead - AI is a tool, we are the spark.

Card 7: Call to Action - Your Turn

- See a flyer? Say yes.
- Bring AI along for the ride.
- See where it takes you.
